WINE CHARACTERISTICS

This wine has an ever-changing bouquet with notes of tart cherry and wild strawberry, followed by hints of smoke and soft leather. Flavors of fig and clove on the palate. Voluptuous with lingering tannins.
Still youthful and developing upon release.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Baco Noirs are very versatile when it comes to food pairing. Try pairing this wine with Genoa salami, Serrano ham, pork pâté, or herb roasted pork tenderloin. For a cheese course, enjoy with sharp cheddar, Manchego, or smoked gouda.
